Prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, the thriving travel and tourism industry was a significant economic driver in WASHINGTON. In 2019:

- Domestic and international travelers spent $22.4 billion while visiting.
- For every $1 million spent in Washington by domestic and international travelers, 6.5 jobs were created.
- Travel spending directly supported 144,694 jobs, making the travel industry the state's 8th largest workforce, representing 5.0% of our state's total private sector employment.
- Travel spending generated $3.0 billion in taxes to state and local governments, which help fund jobs and public programs such as police, firefighters, teachers, road projects and convention centers.

In 2020 and 2021, the COVID-19 pandemic led to historic declines in travel to WASHINGTON and caused severe economic harm to our attractions, hotels, restaurants and more.

- Spending by domestic and international travelers declined 40% in 2020, shuttering many local businesses and putting our residents out of work. Spending remains 35% below 2019 levels in 2021.
- Travel employment fell by 27% in 2020 and travel's share of total private industry employment fell from 5.0% to 3.9%.
